FOR RELEASE THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10

Staff additions to the School of Education, the School of Business Administration, the Chemistry Dept., and the Library were announced Wednesday by Montana State University President Carl McFarland.

Kenneth V. Lottick will be an associate professor, teaching courses in secondary education, directing secondary student teaching, and guiding graduate research. Robert K. Ford will be a lecturer in elementary accounting. Adelaine S. Midgett will be an instructor, assisting in the catalog department of the Library. Jean E. Osterheld will be a part-time instructor in chemistry.

Dr. Lottick received an A. B. from Hanover College in Indiana, an M. A. from Ohio State University, and a D.Ed. from Harvard University. He also did graduate work in American history at Columbia University. He has taught in colleges in Idaho, New York, North Carolina, Florida, and Oregon, and in high schools in Florida and Ohio. He was coordinator of student teaching at Willamette University, Salem, Ore., from 1948-1956.

Ford, a former MSU staff member, is a graduate of the University and a certified public accountant. Mrs. Midgett, also a graduate of MSU, has been a librarian in the Choteau County Free Library, the Choteau County High School library and the library of St. Patrick's School of Nursing, Missoula. Mrs. Osterheld holds an A. B. from Wheaton College in Illinois and an M. S. from Cornell University, New York, where she was a teaching and research assistant and a chemist for the Cornell rubber reserve project.
